THE NORTHERN TRUST

2020 was the first and only year of the Northern Trust Open at TPC Boston. Dustin Johnson broke the 4-day scoring record with a final score of (-30) to win the tournament by 11 strokes over Harris English. Scottie Scheffler also set the course record with his 59 in the second round. Johnson closed his win out with an impressive bogey free 63 on Sunday to win the first of his three tournaments that year, including The Masters which was held in November.
