

2008

DEUTSCHE BANK CHAMPIONSHIP

2008 saw Vijay Singh become the first two-time champion of the Deutsche Bank Championship. Singh put together an incredible back nine holes to shoot (-8) 63 which matched the lowest scoring final round in the events history. His final score of (-22) held off former Masters Champion Mike Weir to win his second Deutsche Bank Championship.