

2011 DEUTSCHE BANK CHAMPIONSHIP

2011 ended up having the first playoff in the events history. Webb Simpson came back from 3 down going in Monday to force a playoff with fellow American Chez Revie. Both players ended up making clutch birdie putts on 18 to halve the first playoff hole. Simpson and Revie went to 17 which ended up being the last playoff hole, Simpson birdied, and Revie parred. With the win, Simpson moved to number one in the World Golf Rankings at the time.
