PLAY WHERE THE PROS PLAY

The course meanders over 148 acres with stately corridors of mature maple, oak, sycamore and eastern white pine trees framing gently rolling fairways. The course features Bentgrass from tee to green surrounded by bluegrass fescue rough. Numerous lakes and ponds add to the golf course's beauty. The course is fully certified in the Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary Program for Golf Courses (ACSP), which supports ecologically-sound land management and protecting wildlife habitats.

TPC River Highlands' award-winning golf course boasts a tough finishing stretch from holes 15-18. The 15, 16 and 17th holes all play around a four-acre lake. Stewart Cink, who won the 2008 Travelers Championship, called them, "four of the most exciting finishing holes in a group anywhere in the world."

While challenging enough for the best players in the world during the Travelers Championship, multiple tees on each hole allow golfers of all abilities to enjoy the unrivaled experience that TPC River Highlands offers.

“If I had to play a golf course every day for the rest of my life, it would be something like this.”

Rory McIlroy

“I love the back nine..It’s a very exciting nine holes of golf, one of the coolest stretches that we play.”

Jordan Spieth

“It’s got a lot of holes that if you hit a good shot you can make birdie or eagle. And if the shot is not hit properly, you can easily make bogey. So it’s definitely got a great finish for the last four holes. I think it’s got a great mix of little holes around the course.”

Sergio Garcia

“It’s awesome. The food is great That’s a very underrated thing about it..how great the food is and the service and stuff like that. That’s little stuff that doesn’t go unnoticed for us...”

Justin Thomas

“This may be the best TPC I’ve played.”

“It’s just a really good, tough golf course. It’s a great golf course. No tricks..if you play well, you get rewarded.”

Paul Casey
