TPC Sawgrass opened in 1980 and is the flagship of the TPC Network. Conceived by PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman, the TPCs achieved the dual goals of providing PGA TOUR players with tournament-quality courses and fans with venues that were ideal for viewing tour events.

TPC Sawgrass boasts two of the most recognized courses in golf – THE PLAYERS Stadium Course and Dye's Valley Course. THE PLAYERS Stadium signature island green at the 17th hole continues to capture the imagination of golfers the world over.

In 1978, the PGA TOUR Members voted to purchase the 415-acre tract that is now TPC Sawgrass for a single dollar and to build a "stadium course" designed specifically for a PGA TOUR event. Commissioner Beman broke ground on February 12, 1979, by driving a bulldozer into the dense palmetto underbrush.

Commissioner Beman said of the opening of the new club, "This is truly a milestone in PGA TOUR history, and will enable us to move rapidly into exciting new areas in the future."

He was right. The success of TPC Sawgrass has spawned a network of Tournament Players Clubs across the United States.
